Entertainments

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR GIVEN IN HONOR OF MISS BENNETT

A delightful affair was given on Sunday afternoon by Mrs. Joseph Bennett and Mrs. W. H. Hays who entertained with a miscellaneous show, complimentary to Miss Lela Bennett, a pretty bride-elect.

A pink and white color scheme was artistically carried out in roses in the rooms thrown open to the guests.

Two interesting contests, having a wedding bell motif, were enjoyed by the guests. In the first the guests formed an acrostic using the names of the bride and bridegroom-elect, which were written on wedding bells and in the second contest the guests, who were blindfolded, were asked to fasten the clapper in a wedding bell fastened of paper. The prizes awarded to the winners were a box of handkerchiefs, a bottle of perfume and a basket of dolls dressed in pink and white.

Another delightful feature of the afternoon was a book "Advice on Keeping a Husband," which was presented to the bride-elect. The names of ten of the girls present were selected and the guests were asked to write on little cards from letter paper, the "advice" using the letters of the names chosen, which were later bound in pink and tied with a pink bow.

The gifts for the bride-elect were arranged in a small wagon, decorated in pink and white with silver wedding bells, which was drawn into the room by the bride-elect's little sister, Mabel, who was daintily gowned in pink and white.

A delicious ice course, in pink and white, with silver bells as the novelties of the afternoon, was served to the guests, 25 of whom had the pleasure of being present.

For the occasion the honoree, Miss Bennett, was gowned in pink and white linen. Mrs. Bennett was gowned in black beaded satin, and Mrs. Hays in black satin with blue sash panels.
